Successful Asian and international duty free and travel retail brands to attend TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference

Over 313 exhibitors have registered for the TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference 2019, including a variety of renowned international brands and leading names from the Asia Pacific region. For the first time, exhibition floor space has been expanded to over 11,000 square metres to accommodate the larger number of brands and visitors attending this year.

A total of 60 brands will be making their first appearance at the event or returning after a short period. These include notable names such as Kering Travel Retail, Begg & Co., and Suzhou Waytone Co. in fashion, accessories and luggage; Rémy Cointreau and Stoli Group in wines and spirits; Nuxe and Mavala Switzerland in fragrances and cosmetics; Chow Tai Fook Jewellery in jewellery and watches; Eu Yan Sang and Patchi in confectionery and fine food; Lamy in gifts and toys; and QuietOn Sleep in electronics.

TFWA's exclusive ONE2ONE meeting service will also help companies organise meetings with senior executives from Asia Pacific airports and airlines, as well as cruise and ferry companies.

Alain Maingraud, TFWA President, said: "The wealth of interest we have received from duty free and travel retail brands looking to exhibit at the TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference has been overwhelming, and further highlights the strength of trade in the Asia Pacific region. With so many exciting brands under one roof, this will be the perfect opportunity for delegates to find out about the latest trends in the region, make new contacts and discuss important business issues."

The TFWA Asia Pacific Exhibition & Conference will take place at Marina Bay Sands from May 12th to 16th. To get full details on this event, please visit www.tfwa.com.
